

The book cover features a stylized, painterly illustration. On the right side, a woman with blonde hair is shown from the chest up, wearing a white long-sleeved top with a floral pattern and dark trousers. The background is a landscape with a dark blue sky, reddish-brown hills, and several trees with yellow and orange foliage. The ground is divided into horizontal bands of yellow, light brown, green, and dark red. The text is overlaid on this background.
