A stylized illustration of Peter Pan and his friends flying through a window at night. The window is framed in yellow and has light blue curtains on either side. Outside, a large yellow full moon is the central focus. Several silhouettes of children are shown in various flying poses against a dark blue night sky filled with yellow stars and clouds. Below the moon, a city skyline is visible in silhouette, including a bridge and a tower. The title 'Peter Pan' is written in a large, elegant, yellow cursive script across the bottom half of the illustration. The author's name 'J. M. BARRIE' is printed in a smaller, yellow, sans-serif font above the title.
