

The book cover features a stylized illustration of a room with a large arched window. The window looks out onto a landscape with two orange trees and a green field. Several pieces of paper with various symbols are floating in the air: a bird, a factory with smokestacks, a building with a dome, the Statue of Liberty, and a classical building. In the foreground, there is a red wooden chair and a table with a red cloth. The background wall has a light orange pattern.
