

The book cover features a vibrant, artistic illustration of an underwater scene. At the top, a small orange helicopter with a transparent bubble is flying over a blue sea with two white sailboats. The water surface is depicted as a torn paper edge. Below, a large, dark grey rock formation rises from the right. In the center, two dolphins are swimming: a smaller, white dolphin above a larger, grey dolphin. The water is filled with sparkling light particles. At the bottom, a colorful coral reef is visible. The author's name 'GILL LEWIS' is printed in gold at the top right, and the title 'Im Zeichen des weißen Delfins' is in a larger gold font in the center. The 'dtv DIGITAL' logo is in the bottom left corner.
