The background of the cover is a soft-focus illustration. On the right, a young woman with long, wavy, light brown hair and large, expressive blue eyes is shown from the chest up. She is wearing a dark, possibly purple or blue, garment. Her hair is adorned with a decorative headband featuring green leaves and small, round, pinkish-purple berries. In the center of the cover, a dragonfly with a dark body and translucent, pinkish-white wings is depicted in flight. The left side of the cover is decorated with a cluster of bright blue flowers with yellow centers and green leaves. The title 'Lia Sturmgold' is written in a large, elegant, golden-yellow script font, with 'Lia' on the top line and 'Sturmgold' on the bottom line. Below the title, the subtitle 'Die Macht der Kristalle' is written in a smaller, golden-yellow serif font, with 'Die Macht' on the top line and 'der Kristalle' on the bottom line.
